

Melody L. Kysiak

July 7, 1961 - July 16, 2025

Melody L. Kysiak (nee Webb), age 64, of St. Germain, passed away on July 16, 2025 at Marshfield Medical Center-Weston after a lengthy illness. She was born in Anderson, South Carolina but spent most of her childhood in Lockport, Illinois. In 1992 she married Richard Kysiak and they moved to northern Wisconsin.

Melody was a member of Shepherd of the Lakes Lutheran Church and was an active volunteer with many organizations, including the Lake Tomahawk Lions Club in which she spearheaded an eyeglass recycling project. She was a past member of the Plum Lake Woman's Club, past President of the Friends of the Plum Lake Library, and a dedicated volunteer, board member and secretary of the Vilas Historical Museum. Melody was an avid reader, loved to cook and bake, enjoyed crafts and treasured time with friends. She loved animals and often took in strays and donated to the Humane Society and many other groups that cared for animals.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Lou and Virginia Webb; her spouse, Richard Kysiak; and nephew Gary Michael Walton. She is survived by her loving sister, Debra (Joe) Bostjancic; niece Jordan (Alex) Korby; nephew Daniel Bostjancic; great nephew Jak Korby and her fur family member Mr. Burkie.

Per Melody's wishes there will be no public services held.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Shepherd of the Lakes Lutheran Church or a local Humane Society in her memory.
