“ I grew up next door to Michael; my family has lots of really sweet memories... Michael used to come to my house first thing Saturday mornings (super early) and ask if I could come out to play... he would wait while I got dressed and had breakfast. It was puppy love, my parents and sister have lots of pictures of Michael always hugging me. As adults, Mike would always swing by my house when he came to visit his parents, I remember how sensitive Mike was and his concern for his mom. The last time I saw Mike, it was New Years eve, close to midnight, and we were walking around the side-streets of our small town together getting caught up. I have so many beautiful early childhood memories of Mike; I will always treasure.

“ I met Michael when he first came to the United States to work at Adjustco. He and I were co-workers. He loved to golf and fish. We remained friends for about 10 years but lost contact after that. We always laughed! Shared life's ups and downs! It was a good friendship! I hope the remaining years of his life did him well! He will always have a special place in my heart!

“ I was just informed of the death of Michael today November 03, 2013.

I grew up with Michael and went to school with him from his hometown, Waterdown, Ontario Canada.

Many of our childhood memories have flooded back to me.

Have comfort that you where always in memory.

One day we will all meet again.

“ My husband Barry and I were very saddened to learn that Michael had passed away. I met Michael when I sold him his brittany Katie. As it turned out, my husband Barry already knew him through the local athletic club. We stayed in touch and talked often when Katie had her first litter. We met Dancer, and later on we sold him another brittany pup-Molly. When Michael moved to Winchester we were able to visit with him when we traveled north to our cottage in Presque Isle. Because he was always so warm, generous, and caring we always looked for Michael and Dancer when we traveled to Wisconsin's north woods. We will miss him, and we send heartfelt condolences to his family.
