

Milan "Bobby" Williams

October 31, 1964 - February 17, 2022

Milan Robert Williams "Bobby" began his journey to the spiritual world on February 17th at 9:53 am surrounded by family and friends. As in life, he battled until the end. Bobby was born on October 31, 1964 in Woodruff, Wisconsin to Tory and Vetelene Williams. He grew up in Eagle River, WI and graduated from Northland Pines High School in 1983. He worked for the Forest Department in Watersmeet, Michigan for 10 years. Upon returning to Lac du Flambeau, Wisconsin, Bobby began teaching at LDF school; teaching Anishinaabemowin to the children. He stressed "learn the language and our ways, so the children of the future can follow." All through Indian Country he traveled the Pow Wow Trail. He met many, many people who all love to be around him. His laugh and quick sense of humor endeared him to his family throughout the U.S. and Canada. Bobby is preceded in death by his fathers, Tory Williams and Harvey Mayo; his mothers, Vetelene Williams and Gen Mayo; brothers, Richard, LeRoy, Howard, Tory, Sheldon and Darryl and sisters, Mabel and Loretta. He is survived by his children, John Skenadore, Darrel Delabreau, Melvin Buckholtz, Kevin Decota, Kylar, Travis and daughters, Tashina, Adrienne, Leah, Katie and his brothers and sisters, Gertrude, Linda, Lucy, JoAnn, James, Thomas, Lawrence and Warren and numerous grandchildren, nieces, nephews and his very special cousin, Kathy Poupart and the numerous friends throughout Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin and Canada. Visitation will begin at 3:00 PM on Saturday, February 19, 2022 at the Bingo Hall in Lac du Flambeau. Services will begin at 10:00

AM on Sunday, February 20, 2022 followed by burial at Memorial Cemetery in Lac du Flambeau.
