“ Jill and family:

Sorry for the loss of your mother. Nancy and I go way back to the house on Jackson St in Waukegan in the 1970's. She broke her leg and I cleaned her house and that was the beginning of a long friendship with Nancy, me and antiques. She had a silver sugerbowl with a red glass liner that I just loved. She found me one at the salvation army and had it replated at Marshall Field!!! it cost her a lot...and it has a green liner.It was beautiful and much better than her red one. When she had her house sale I bought her red suger bowl and they both sit in my kitchen to this day. We bought and sold jewelry together with Pat knosak and I bought her silver crutit set from her when she left for europe and when she returned from europe and after Larry, she bought it back from me because she liked it so much...we had a lot of fun together and we had quite a few long discussions about Mark so that was good for her and me. Waukegan was the "good ol days " for us, our kids were little, we have jobs and a little money to buy and sell our antique junk back and forth. Nancy may have moved on to a better house with lots of gold but we have good memories of her and the fun we had together. Terry Evans who use to live at 410 Hickory St, with Hardy, her girls Stacy and Darcy next to Sarah Griffin and her family.
