“ I have fond memories of staying with Nat and Bob in their cottage on the lake when I was a child. Visiting their cottage was the summer vacation I always looked forward to. Bob and Nat were good friends of my parents, Marv and Pat. My most recent memory of Nat is when we got together for lunch in Saint Germain a few years ago. Both my parents were there, too, as was my sister. I extend my greatest sympathy to Bob, Robbie and other family members.
