

Patricia Winger

March 18, 1940 - November 25, 2011

Patricia J. Winger, 71, of Hazelhurst, passed away Friday, November 25, 2011, at Howard Young Medical Center. She was born 3/18/40 in Chicago, Illinois, the daughter of Owen & Genevieve (Gripp) King. She married Eugene E. Winger on 9/6/58 in Minocqua. She is survived by her six children, Theresa of Hazelhurst, Michael (Sally) of Boulder Junction, Lynn (Bob) Green of Venice, FL, Richard (Jodi) of Hazelhurst, Susan (Jim) Plunkett of Lawrenceville, GA, and John (Bonnie) of Hazelhurst; five sisters, Mary Arts, Ellen King, Kathleen Schaffer, Marcella Bohlander, and Jane Carstens; three brothers, Owen, Gene and Dennis King; four grandchildren, Jennifer Cator, Janet Rynders, Jacey Winger and Callan Mauro; and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Gene, and two brothers, Thomas & William.

Patti was the first Aquarama Queen in 1958 and enjoyed working as a waitress in the Minocqua area for many years at such landmarks as The Holiday restaurant, Bosacki's Boathouse and the Polecat and Lace. She later volunteered at the Lakeland Food Pantry and was manager of Soap and Suds Laundromat in Woodruff.

Visitation will be held at the Holy Family Catholic Church beginning at 9:00 AM on Wednesday, November 30, mass at 11:00 AM, followed by a luncheon in the church hall.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to the Hazelhurst Fire Department, the Hazelhurst Lions Club, or a charity of your choice.

“ Fond memories of a strong woman and family. Kind to pick us up and take us to grade school in their French door Lincoln. I think I've been a car nut ever since. Beautiful picture of Patti brings back lots of warm memories with Susan, the beach at Lake Katherine, and high school. It's a sad day. But lots and lots of memories. Take care, John
