“ My deepest condolences to the family as great Auntie Polly left us. I was very fortunate to have Auntie Polly and Tom for the 50th wedding anniversary of my parents and my lovely father Laddie Push funeral .

She resembles my late father slimming and being positive even in bed times.

I was unfortunate to see Baba Jadwiga Push and Erasmus as I was living in Poland with my parents.

My father Laddie before he passed away had one remorse that he didn't say goodbye to Baba/mama before he left to Poland in 1950 . Father told me if he went to see her in hospital she would never let him go to Poland.

Laddie was unfortunate to see his mother and father again.

He was not allowed to go to funeral of his father Erasmus in Slovak town even he was living in Canada. 🙄😇.Finally he could vist his parents graves and with his best brother Louis and Vincent went to Poland to visit other side of the Pushkarski and Koslowski family 🙏

“ Mary Alice said it all for Liudmila and me. One incident stands out in my memory and it was mentioned by Polly and myself each and every time we met or spoke on the phone. She was quite athletic and so was I. We wrestled every Sunday afternoon , weather permitting, when Uncle Stanley brought her and Baba Push to visit our family. After a delicious fried chicken dinner wrestling was a scheduled event. Once I was on top as an apparent victor. Suddenly Polly swung both her legs up and over, caught my chest, propelled me backwards to the ground, at which time I saw stars!! I was eight and she was nine! We parted ways when I went away to high school and she to Chicago. Eventually I became a widower and later Married Liudmilla in 2011. We immediately proceeded to visit Aunt Frances and Aunt Pauline, meeting in Illinois. Both were then vivacious and exuberant ladies and we remember both as lovely aunts. Polly is smiling as she reads these words. Our next meeting will be in eternity in Jesus presence . See you there Polly.

“ I can't agree more with Mary Alice in her comments about Polly. She was the youngest in the family and my mother was the oldest. I always looked forward to seeing her every Sunday when she, Aunt Sophia and my cousins brought Baba to our house for dinner. As I mentioned on their 50th anniversary celebration, I didn't like it when Tom stole her away and took her to Wisconsin but I forgave him and glad they produced three wonderful sons. Like Aunt Frances and Aunt Sophia, she missed her husband and will be with him again. She lived a beautiful life and I loved her so much. Frances Dorough

“ A lovely lady left us which makes us very sad, but knowing that this lovely lady is now in a lovely place with her loving husband Tom turns our sadness into gladness for pretty Polly. She was my last and youngest aunt, and I will always miss her sweet smile, as also, I will always remember the many special and happy times that we shared. Polly's family was very dear to her and she, in return, must be very dear to them. she will be in the hearts of us all forever. Love and hugs from neice Mary Alice

I love my Aunt Polly so much and will miss hearing her sweet voice. She always signed her cards with “Love, Hugs, and Prayers” and loved to hear from her nieces as we loved to hear from her. She was a comfort to me when my father, her brother, died at an early age. She sat with me and commiserated with me when I so needed it. She and Uncle Tom were so hospitable and welcomed my daughter and her boyfriend during the holidays when they were in college in Wisconsin and couldn't make it back home for Thanksgiving. That is just the person she was, loving and welcoming. May she rest in eternal peace surrounded by love and hugged in the arms of Jesus. Love you always, your niece, Becky Jo

I was very fortunate to have Auntie Polly and Tom for my parents 50th wedding anniversary and then for her brother's funeral Laddie Push. I was very fortunate to see her as she resembles my late father's slimming and being positive even in bed times.

Last of the original Pushes had gone in peace. I was not fortunate to see my Baba Jadwiga and Erasmus as I was living in Poland 🙏.

RIP Polly Cable/Pushkarski 🙏🥰
