“ I miss you so much Mom. There isn't a day that goes by where you are not on my mind and in my heart. I miss your voice and all of your silly stories. I miss you telling me about seeing your hummers and the enjoyment they always gave you, I miss you watching your Packers and getting so mad at them for losing again. I missed your call last Christmas morning at 2am waking us up telling us it was time to open presents. That was a fairly new custom and memory but a loved one just like all of the rest. I know you were ready to go be with Grandpa but I wasn't ready to let you go. So many times I've need you, then I hear you telling me I can do it and it will be ok. I love you Mom.

“ Mom, it's been one year today and there isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I miss hearing your voice and all of the stories you told me every day. Last Christmas Eve I missed you not calling at 2am . Of all of our traditions that was a semi new one but it was missed just like the rest of them. I miss you telling me about your hummers coming to the window for you to enjoy or the snow you were getting or how irritated you were when your Packers were losing another game. Every single day I miss you and that old saying if I could have one more day with you..... i love you Mom. Sheila “ Although I have not seen Pearl for many years, I have often thought of the hours I spent with her and LeRoy playing games and spending countless hours visiting (when we were not working at Super 3)! I will always cherish her friendship and I was saddened to hear of her passing. My condolences to her family.
