“ I Will miss him. <3 He was a big part of my life and my parents (Pat and Sonny Alt) good friend for 50 years. We met him and former wife Carla at the Junction Bar {now the Guides} and restaurant and they gave me one of my first jobs and they taught me well. Their dog Susie who was the love of their life as well as Bede the smiling black lab. Memories of feeding the deer out of your hand at the Junction is a fond memory. I loved hearing their stories about when they ran a fancy bar and restaurant in Chicago. He was an awesome fishing guide as well as a inventor of the firewood carrier. He always teased me about how when I was a baby he even changed my diapers and would would remind me of this when I was in trouble. lol. He will be greatly miss but I hope he is up drinking beer with my dad again. Love you buddy.....

“ Geno will be missed by many in Boulder Junction. As an advertising photographer I had a lot of fun photographing Geno and Terry at my studio in Boulder sharing a beer as part of an advertising sample. Terry is the current owner of the Headwaters restaurant and has Geno's beer sharing image on display. Two nice guys!
