

Renae R. Olson

June 7, 1951 - March 14, 2025

Renae Ross Olson, from Campbell, MN, was born June 7th 1951. She graduated from Campbell-Tintah School in 1969 and continued her education at Minnesota State University Moorhead with a BA in Education. Renae moved to Minneapolis where she had her 2 daughters, Jenny and Olivia. She then moved back to her hometown area, raising her daughters in Breckenridge, MN and Wahpeton, ND. She found joy in being a librarian at North Dakota State College of Science, being a stay at home mom, and writing for the Wahpeton Daily News newspaper.

After her daughters college educations, she followed them to the Fargo, ND area where she eventually bought a house in Barnesville, MN. She worked as a secretary for the Hanson-Runsvold funeral home, where she eventually retired when moving to Minocqua, WI with her oldest daughter, Jenny. She spent her retirement years being Gigi to her only grandchild, Josephine.

She is preceded in death by her father, Ernest Ross; mother, Josephine (Lievering) Ross; and brother, Duane (Elaine) Ross.

She is survived by her sister, Wilma (Harris) Richardson; brother, Neil (Corrine) Ross; daughter, Jenny (Jeremy) Champagne; granddaughter, Josephine Champagne; daughter, Olivia (Lance) Weiler and many loved extended family members.

In remembrance, please send donations in Renae's name to Lakeland Care.
They were a huge support system in later years with all her health challenges.
