

Ronald Allison

September 19, 1948 - September 14, 2012

Ronald Allen Allison, 63, passed away September 14, 2012 at home in Lake Tomahawk, Wisconsin under the care of Hospice.

Ronald was born in Wisconsin Rapids on September 19, 1948 to Robert and Annabelle Allison of Plainfield.

Ronald graduated from Lincoln High School in Wisconsin Rapids and attended the University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point before serving in the U.S. Air Force from 1968 to 1973. He returned to school in 1975. In 1976 he married Nancy Bayne. He later was a mail carrier for the U.S. Postal Service before becoming disabled. He then devoted his time to raising his three sons. His family and friends will miss his compassion, sense of humor and willingness to go out of his way to help others.

Ronald is survived by his wife, Nancy Bayne, his sons, Galen Bayne-Allison of Lake Tomahawk, Braden Bayne-Allison of Rhinelander and Daniel Trifone of Madison, his parents, Robert and Annabelle Allison of Plainfield, sisters Linda Klingforth of Plainfield and Janet Hansen of Wisconsin Rapids, and brother Charles of Wisconsin Rapids.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to the Lakeland Pantry, Woodruff, Wisconsin or the Engaged Citizenship Scholarship Fund, UW-Stevens Point.

“ A great meal that we had together at the Mead Inn. A beautiful sirloin for two and very enjoyable.

“ Nancy, I am so very sorry for your loss. Ron will always be remembered for the scholarship you and he created for our students at UWSP. You should take great comfort from knowing that he acknowledged the heart-felt work of so many young people.

“ Jack and I send our condolences to you and your family on the loss of Ron. Jack remarked that he first knew Ron as a student in one of his classes and always enjoyed talking with him. I remember his infectious smile and warm greeting whenever we crossed paths in Stevens Point. May memories of funny moments bring a smile to your face.
