“ I remember the horseback riding lessons at the local stable next to the curling club, watching our daughters learn to ride. My daughter Jaime asked if I would go to the service. I didn't know Rosemarie had moved up north. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ Roy and Adrianna, Bob and I are so very sorry for your loss. Reading Rosemarie's name in the paper brought back so many memories from the barn and horse shows. Her sense of humor made sitting on those concrete risers so much more enjoyable. May God watch over you now in these difficult times.
