

Rupert J. Bartel, Jr.

January 19, 1929 - April 24, 2026

Rupert J. Bartel (Dewey), passed away peacefully on Friday, April 24, 2026 at the age of 97. Born January 19, 1929 to Rupert and Lillie Bartolowits.

Dewey is survived by his beloved, caring and devoted wife of 76 years Faye Bartel (nee Marquardt). Always together golfing, traveling and enjoying life. Loving Dad to Jeff (Diane) Carlin-Bartel, Steve (Pam) Bartel and Tami (Bob) Clairmont. Proud Grandpa to Triona (Eric) Walker and Lily (Andrew) Noegel. Great Grandpa to Atlas Walker, Chase and the late Cora Noegel. Further, survived by other relatives and friends.

Dewey was a very loving and caring husband and Dad who always put his family's needs above his own. Dewey took pride in his beautiful yards with colorful flowers. He enjoyed woodworking, yoga, walking the dog, the Green Bay Packers including training camps. He loved helping family and friends with his ability to fix anything. He worked in sales and had the gift of gab with an incredible smile.

Dewey has had a membership in a Masonic Lodge (McKinely #307) since 1961.

Per Dewey's wishes they will be no services.

Special thanks to Aspirus Hospice and the caregivers at Country Terrace.
