“ I have known Ruth just a few short years and this friendship began when I came up north along with Diane & Marty Miller. What a lifetime of friendship, laughs, dining out and Ruth have her 'virgin mary' @ pik likes, and just sitting outside on the patio and just having a girls' day out or nite out. She is and always will be one of the finest ladies I have known and I will always feel blessed having known this wonderful lady !

“ We want to extend our deepest sympathies to the family especially Chuck. Ruth was a wonderful caring person and we were blessed to have had her in our lives. I will always remember the fun times up north. And the lovely bridal shower she threw for me I will always be grateful.
