

Sarah Bond

July 3, 1921 - February 25, 2011

Sarah Louise Bond, 89, died February 25, 2011, at the Avanti Health and Rehabilitation Center in Minocqua, Wisconsin.

Per her wishes, no services will be held.

Sarah was born Sarah Louise Harris on July 3, 1921, in Peoria, Illinois to Benjamin and Olive Harris and had seven siblings: Russell, Leona, Charlotte, Leonard, John, Helen and Thelma. Though she was part of a very large family, she stood out for her warmth and kindness.

Sarah was the loving wife of William Manley III and devoted mother to William Manley IV.

For many years, Sarah worked for District 87 in Glen Ellyn, IL and upon retiring, moved to Minocqua, Wisconsin to enjoy the peace and tranquility of the North Woods.

She is survived by her sister, Helen Hagan; grandchildren, William Manley and Virginia Manley; grandson-in-law David Fredericksen and great granddaughter Sarah Fredericksen.

She was preceded in death by her son, William Manley IV and daughter-in-law, Barbara Manley.

She will be greatly missed by those who were fortunate enough to have come in contact with her.

Donations may be sent to The American Stroke Foundation in Sarah's name:
www.americanstroke.org.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ Bill, Ginny, Dave and Sarah, we're so sorry for your loss. Louise was a lovely lady and will be missed.

Love, Aunt Ginger and Uncle Jim

Jim and Ginger Schwanebeck - March 22, 2013 at 11:53 AM