“ 🌙 Many moons ago.... a little toddler named Savanna would come wobbling in the kitchen.... back in the days when I was so in love with her mother... Savanna knew one word Aja... I don't know what it meant... but every time she said it with her big bold free expansive spirit... she lit up my inner world and lifted my spirit to the heights ☀️.... she's the same even now.... I feel her whispering to me live! LIVE while you have a chance!!! ...

my sky is crying.... 💧

I'll always remember you.

May the Spirit of Comforting Love ❤️ come into all our grieving hearts... wash away the tears... renew... Savanna's voice speaks to us from the other side....

"I am well. All is well. Let not your heart be troubled. Live and love yourself and each other.... while you have the chance. I'll be in the air you breathe now.... I'll be closer than your breath... in your heart... where you can always feel me.... and I will feel you.... and we'll be one."

Thank you for your wonderful spirit and the uplifting effect you have on my life and heart....

✨ ✨ ✨ Savanna lives forever! ✨ ✨ ✨ ✨

S..A..M.

My love goes out to you, Alicia ... and your whole family.
