“ I went to Lakeland High with Sharon, and have warm memories of her. She was a quite and gentle person. We lost contact after high school, but I am sure her kindness continued to grow. My warmest regards to her family.

“ To Bill, the kids, grandkids and other family and friends, I offer my deepest sympathies to you. Sharon was one of the kindest and sweetest ladies there was. She had a way of making anyone feel good and welcome in her presence. The angels will welcome her with open arms. I loved her and wish the best for all of you.
