“ I met Sig through the Rockford Road Runners Club back in the early 70s. We ran the '75 Boston Marathon together until he pulled ahead of me in the last few miles and beat me by 3 minutes. Rest in peace Sig.

“ *To May Britt, Kurt and Brian
We are with you in Spirit at the loss of Sig. Our memories are numerous especially when it came to outdoor activities; biking, down hill and cross country skiing. NOONE could beat Sig. We will miss him but know that he is in a wonderful place; he can bike and ski all he wants to. It is so nice to have memories of him in St. Charles, Ill Minocqua, Wisc and, Sweden. Rest Sig; your life was full! Pat and Craig Anderson*
