“ Our thoughts are of Stan and with his family tonight. Stan's passion for the weather was contagious. As our "Weather Watcher" from Sayner, Stan would call in every night for years the days weather conditions. Ryan, Chad and I always appreciated Stan's reports as they were always matter of fact, there was no fluff in Stan's reports. Dedicated, passionate, observant and kind doesn't even scratch the surface when digging into the qualities he possessed and demonstrated on a daily basis. While we know you are in a better place, we can't avoid being a little selfish when stating, we really want you back. The entire NewsWatch 12 family is thinking of Stan and his family tonight.

“ I remember meeting Stan with Candy at Stillwater's about 12 years ago. We had a common link with Oconomowoc. Ever since that first meeting whenever I ran into Stan there was always a warm smile and handshake.

Each night as I was watching Channel 12 weather i would wait for "Stan from Sayner" weather report. I was honored to be "Pseudo Stan" when he and Candy would go out of town and call in the local weather.

It is easy to describe Stan in two words: great guy.
