

Steven E. Gadbow

February 14, 1953 - November 12, 2022

Steven E. Gadbow, age 69, of Boulder Junction WI, passed away November 12, 2022. He was born on February 14th, 1953 in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Steve is preceded in death by his parents. Steve was raised in St. Paul and Duluth, MN. He graduated from St. Paul Harding High School. Steve worked for Asset Restoration Technologies as a restoration technician and supervisor of many clean up/restoration jobs, including the first bombing of the World Trade Center in 1993 and several natural disasters. He enjoyed fishing and the outdoors, long walks, and sports. He especially liked cheering on the Vikings (even in the middle of Packer Country!) We will all miss his great sense of humor.

Steve is survived by his life partner, Terri Trickey, of Boulder Junction, WI; his daughter, Amy (Jason) Golden, of Warrenton, VA; Grandchildren, Emerson, Riley, and Easton Golden; his sisters, Suzanne Gadbow , of Duluth, MN, Dana (Matt) Peterson, of Rochester, MN, brother, David Gadbow, of Duluth, MN; Nieces, Katie Gadbow-Kapaun , Brigitte, Madeline, and Meagan Peterson, Nephew, Kirk Peterson; and his many friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Steve and I shared a unique (some would call "warped") sense of humor. I will miss him very much. Condolences to my sister-in-law for life, Terri, who gave him the most love and best care imaginable. Steve, when my time comes, I look forward to enjoying one of mutual favorite dishes together, Kraft Mac and Cheese!
