“ Tom and I were friends since we were in kindergarten together. As kids, we created many adventures for ourselves in our north Milwaukee neighborhood, hanging out in McGovern Park, jumping freight trains, and being young rowdies together. During our adult years, Tom and his beloved wife, Betsy, shared their beautiful piece of Northwoods Wisconsin with me and my wife, Sharon -- first in the authentic teepee that they put up every summer, and eventually, in the beautiful log home that they had dreamt about for years and built. We had great times, and we have many, many memories. We'll miss you, Tom. Rest in Peace, Dear Friend.
