“ What a sweet and loving man. His love of life and family radiated from him every day. The faith he taught and shared to those who knew and loved him will carry us through. May you rest in God's loving arms forever.

“ Tom & Shirley were one of the first people we met when we starting attending Rock of Ages. Through the years Tom has become a wonderful friend. I always knew when we ushered he'd be more than happy to help out and when we took communion Tom always had a smile and a little wave for us as he went up. He will be missed.
