

William D. Lindsay

January 26, 1928 - December 2, 2013

William David Lindsay, 85, of Springstead, WI passed away at the Seasons of Life Hospice House on December 2, 2013. He was born in Milwaukee on January 26, 1928, the son of Constance (Harper) and Gordon Lindsay. Bill married Nola Marie Mockrud in Madison on October 9, 1953. He was a graduate of Milwaukee University School and Drake University. Bill served in the US-Navy, which led to his interest in electronics. He was a retiree of Rockwell Automation. Bill and Nola had been vacationing on Stone Lake in Springstead for 60 years and retired there in 1992. He served as Town Chairman and supervisor for many years. Bill also loved history and belonged to the Milwaukee Civil War Roundtable. He enjoyed his childhood summers at his grandfathers place on Turner Lake; enjoying fishing and exploring with his cousin Rusty. Camp Manitowish was also a joy for him. This came to an end during WWII when Bill was required to spend summers in the family agricultural equipment business, replacing men who had gone to war. Survived by his wife Nola, daughter Rev. Eileen (William Hughes) Lindsay of Lafayette, CA; sons Craig of Oakdale, MN and David of Redmond, WA; grandchildren Forrest (Julia Melle) Lindsay-McGinn; Claire Lindsay-McGinn; Laura, Daniel and Scott Lindsay; sister Ann Remus. Services will be held Thursday December 12, 2013 at 11 AM at the Sherman Town Hall with lunch to follow. Memorials are suggested to Camp Manitowish YMCA PO Box 246 Boulder Junction, WI 54512.
